The Spider,

I saw a little spider, climbing up my kitchen wall,
He climbed up to the ceiling; how I hoped he would not fall,
But I need not have worried, that he'd fall and bump his head,
For soon I saw him swinging, on a flimsy silken thread,
For he possessed a secret; he could make a safety line, and do with his small body, what I cannot do with mine,
He was a happy spider, swinging gaily to and fro,
I watched and was delighted till t'was time for me to go,
But I have learned a lesson, which I have not yet forgot,
That one frail little spider, could achieve what I could not.
