REFERENCE ONLINE

Did you know that with your Oxfordshire Libraries membership number, you can get free access to a fantastic world of information 24 hours a day, 7 days a week from your home computer, not just when the library is open?

Simply go to www.oxfordshire.gov.uk/referenceonline to dip into a wealth of information including Britannica Online, Grove Art and Music Online, NewsUK, The Oxford Dictionary of National Biography, Times Digital Archive and a wide range of online reference books such as Who's Who.

Reference Online is available in all our libraries and you don't have to be a member to use them there, although we'd like you to join. We also have other online titles on family history (Ancestry) and business information that are only available in some libraries. Please ask at your local library for more information and if you're not a library member yet, now's the time to join - it's free!
Please contact us for details.

THE BATTLE OF NEWBRIDGE

(re-enactment!)

21 & 22 JULY FROM 11 AM

Organised entirely by volunteers from Kingston Bagpuize, Southmoor and Longworth to raise money for desperately-needed new preschool premises in the village. This is a weekend of historical entertainment paying homage to events that took place in 1644 when Newbridge was a strategically important river crossing. On the banks of the Thames where the A415 crosses just a few miles NW of Marcham, several hundred authentically-dressed civil war soldiers will battle for supremacy. There will also be children's puppet shows, funfair, craft marquee organised by Millets Farm etc.

£6 FOR ADULTS AND £4 FOR CHILDREN.

This will be the largest reenactment in Oxfordshire for many years. More details from <http://www.oxfordshire2007.co.uk/listings/showevent.asp?Event=239>
